Week 2: Repentance

Discussion

Think about a time, perhaps from childhood, when you had to come clean about some kind of transgression that you had committed. Did you face consequences? Was it difficult for you to express your own wrongdoing?

Scripture

Read Luke 13:1-9; Romans 2:4; Mark 1:15

Questions

- What are your thoughts on “bad things happening to good people?”
- Read Romans 2:4. Express how even good things can lead us to repentance.
- Which is more difficult for you to agree with: (1) I am a wicked sinner or (2) I am cherished and loved?
- Read the parable contained in verses 6-9 of Luke 13. How does the story told by Jesus encourage you to repent?

Application

Whether you find yourself in good times or bad times, commit to praying the Prayer of Repentance (below) several times each week throughout Lent. Take time to consider the words of the prayer and contextualize them in to your own life.

Prayer

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
